ion, and Sergeant Norvell, of Company F, as sergeant-major. The men presented a very smart and soldierly appearance, and the drill which followed the inspection was very creditable.

Company F, with three officers, six sergeants, four corporals, and thirty-one men, carried off the honors of the evening, by scoring a hundred per cent. This is the third year in succession that this company has been inspected with full ranks, and Captain Mills, who has been the commandant on all those occasions, entertained less men at Zimmermann's after the inspection.

Mr. Trigg's Visit to Charleston Re-

Mr. William R. Trigg, president of the Richmond Locomotive- and Machine-

South. While away he spent several days in Charleston, and since his return the Locomotive-Works has received an order from the South Carolina and Georgia failway for twe heavy, compound, consolidated engines, with cylinders 22 and 35 by 36 inches, and weighing about 152,000 pounds. These are the heaviest locomotives used in the South, and are not only designed especially for fuel economy, but to increase train tonnage.

Speaking of Mr. Trigg's visit to Charleston, the News and Courier of a recent date says:

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Boston and Brooklyn Break Even-

Sharp Contrasts in Playing. BOSTON, September 21.-Brooklyn piled up twelve runs against Boston in the first inning of the first game to-day. They made seven safe hits in succession, and sixteen men had gone to the bat before sixteen men had gone to the bat before the visitors were retired. Seven of the runs were made after two men were out. In the fourth, with the bases filled, and three runs scored. Hickman was placed in the box, and after the first two innings did fairly well.

The second game abounded in sharp fielding, excellent pitching, and fine hitting, being a decided contrast to the first game. Lewis proved an enigma. Attendance, 8,600. Score:

the make-up of the team which will represent this city in next year's pennant race. Manager Weils, in whom the patrons of the game here have abluing faith, will, as has heretofore been announced, have absolute authority in the selection of the men who are to play under him.

The Richmond management have decided, in view of the coolness of the weather, to abandon the Soby-Cup series, and Paterson has been notified to that effect. It is rather a singular coincidence that the league meeting in Newark everyone of the eight teams was represented by an Elk.

one of the eight teams was represented by an Elk.

The Newark papers in some manner got Charlie Donati's name mixed up, and spoke of him as Mr. Guiseppe Guinnetti.

Hartford and Richmond were said at the meeting to be the best cities in the circuit. Richmond, Newark, and Hartford were the only cities in the league which made money last year. All the others lost.

Richmond's contract with the Atlantic League runs for four years, hence there can be no more threats of dropping her out during this century. Norfolk also holds a four-year contract.

Elberfeld still says he will not go to Philadelphia, but he will be forced to do so next season, or else quit the business. He is the property of the Quaker City club, being entirely out of the hands of Richmond. If he continues to kick, as he is now doing, he will find that he will be served like Amos Rusie was, Leever is perfectly willing to go to Pittsburg, and will report there for the opening or next season.

LIEUTENANT BURKERT RESIGNS. Ten days ago Lieutenant Charles E. Burkert tendered his resignation as first lieutenant of the Grays, of Manchester, and while no action has been taken towards accepting it, it is believed that Mr. Burkert will insist upon being relieved from duty as soon as practicable. Mr. Burkert assigns as his reason for resigning that he was placed under arrest a short while ago and threatened with court-martial because of alleged failure of duty while acting captain of the company, and that his private busi-ness would also conflict with his military turned to their Armory, on Hull street, after the inspection in Richmond, Lieutenant Burkert announced his purpose to the company. This was the first time his intention had been made known to the members of the company, and the matter was the cause of general regret among the Grays. Mr. Burkert is one of the original members of the Grays, being chosen first sergeant when the company was mustered in, three years go. He remained in this position but a short time, however, being promoted to third lieutenant, and before the expira-tion of a year was elected to the office he now holds. When a little more than he now holds. When a little more than a year ago, Captain A. C. Attkisson resigned, the captaincy was tendered to Mr. Burkert, but he declined the honor, preferring to remain in a subordinate position. STRUCK A WOMAN IN THE FACE.

entertained less men at Zimmermann's after the inspection.

Company D had three officers, four sergeants, one corporal, and twenty-eight privates present but there were thirteen absentees. This is due, doubtless, to a disaffection which has sprung up in the company since the arrest of Captain Crawford for failing to put in his reports at the proper time. The action of the commandant's superior officers in this matter has stirred up no little feeling, and it is understood that if Captain Crawford leaves many applications for discharge will be made. His resignation has not been acted upon.

The same disaffection, in a more aggravated form even, is evident in Company G, the Manchester Grays, which showed up last night with one officer, one sergeant, three corporals, and twenty-three privates absent. There were present two officers, five sergeants, one corporal, and twenty-four privates. The very poor showing of Company G will have a disastrous effect on the percentage of the regiment, which otherwise would have been somewhat higher than on former occasions.

The field and staff officers present were Much excitement prevailed on Hull street, and about the station-house yes-terday afternoon. It was occasioned by the unusual demonstration of Harry Totty, a young man, and a peaceable citizen when sober, but not so when maddened with whiskey. He lives at Semmes and Fifteenth streets, and yesterday went to his father's house near by and engaged in a fight with him. He almost stripped his father, and in this plight sent him running to the station-house. When Totty left his father's domicile he passed the residence of Mrs. Richard Brown, on Eleventh street, and that lady remonstrated with him for being drunk. He struck her full in the face and felled her to the ground. He was in the act of stamping her in the face when some one pulled him away. Two warrants were issued for his arrest-one being sworn out by his father and the other by Mrs. Brown. Officer Wright served both and met with

The field and staff officers present were Lieutenant-Colonel G. W. Anderson, Adjutant Emmett A. Shepherd, Commissary-Gofficer Charles H. Phillips, Ordnance-Officer H. Percy Gray, and Assistant-Surgeon E. B. Teusler. The following members of the non-commissioned staff were present: Sergeant-Major Ernest M. Lacy, Commissary-Sergeant H. V. B. Moore, Ordnance-Sergeant G. L. Kraken. Color-Sergeants A. Watkins and C. F. Elliott, and Quartermaster-Sergeant W. Gibson.

The band and drum corps were inspected at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. There were no absentees, and as the band is attached to Company B, this gives to that command a hundred per cent.

The cavalry will be inspected to-night. MRS. WALKE DEAD. Mrs. Sydenham Walke, widow of Dr. Sydenham Walke, once a prominent physician of this city, died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of her son, Mr. W. W. Walke, No. 901 yet been completed but it is probable that the last service of respect will be held this afternoon at Central Methodist church.

Speaking of Mr. Trigg's visit to Charteston, the News and Courier of a recent date says:

"Mr. W. R. Trigg, president, and Mr. Carl J. Meilla, mechanical engineer, of the Richmond Lacomotive-Works, or Richmond, Va., were in the city yesterday on 'business,' which may be accepted as another promising indication for the city. The Locomotive-Works have a large number of orders from different roads, and are doubtless negotiating with one of the roads leading into Charleston. These works, it will be remembered, built the machinery for the battleship Texas, which gained high reputation and set at rest the question as to whether first-class machinery can be constructed south of Mason and Dixon's line. It is also worthy of especial note that the passenger engines illustrated in the New York Herald of last Sunday as being the largest ever made are under construction in the shops of the same company, and are intended for the Southern railway. Some idea of the business of the company can be gained from the fact that it gives employment to about eight hundred men." SARAH JOHNSON GOES FREE. issued a call for the Democratic State and Executive committees to meet at Murphy's Hotel, in this city, Thursday night, September 39th, at 8 o'clock. The State Committee is composed of fifty and the Executive Committee of the Powhatan Club appointed to make arrangements for the Democratic ratificatics meeting, which will be held here to-morrow night, will meet at 6 o'clock this evening in the assembly hall of the club. The finishing touches will be given to the plans, and further details will be discussed. This will be the last meeting of the committee before the grand rally.

Hon, E. W. Saunders is in the city, stopping at Murphy's Hood. In came here on a business mission, and will remain in the city until to-morrow. Mr. Saunders was renominated for the House of Delegates last Saturday. Franklin county having a large Democratic majority, there is no doubt of his election.

Last night Mr. Saunders visited the Westmoreland Club, and later chatted with Hon. Addison Maupin, Mr. Joseph Button, and other friends in the lobby of the hotel. He stated that the Democratic party was in fine shape in nearly all the counties in the Fifth District, and said he was quite sure the nominee for floater defeated in Franklin and Floyd would be elected this fall. Mr. Saunders expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with the progress of his candidacy for the speakership of the House. He stated to a Dispatch reporter that he had received letters from many nominees pledging him their votes and hearty support, and he was not at all uneasy as to the result.

Hon. A. J. Montague spent yesterday here, had pleasant interviews with Chairman Ellyson and Secretary Button, and left in the afternoon for Middlesex, where he speaks to-day.

ment of an Old Judgment. The Lillian Lewis Company fell on par-lous times in Richmond yesterday. The on so far has not dealt kindly with this combination, and the wintry blast which struck the box-office in this city is but part of the same blizzard which has followed in the wake of the attraction since the season's opening.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Sheriff of Richmond attached the box office receipts on behalf of Mr. Geoffrey Stern, who secured a judgment against Mr. Marston, husband of Miss Lewis, and Mr. Marston, husband of Miss Lewis, and virtually the proprietor of the show, in the Law and Equity Court of Richmond, several years ago. The balance due on this judgment was $118.3, for Mr. Marston has been attached no less than three times on former tours, and upon each occasion the debt has been reduced slightly. Part of the claim was paid yesterday, and the levy was raised upon the agreement of Mr. Marston to pay the balance due at an early date.

Mr. Louis Wendenburg was counsel for Mr. Stern, and Mr. Harry B. Smith, Jr., was retained by Miss Lewis. Mr. Marston said that he would not have come to Richmond this season had he not received a written guarantee that his creditor would not proceed against him.

THE FIRST RACE.

The first race on the card, a one-mile novice, had eight entries, and was productive of much merriment and sport hard as the boys could go, the field broke and J. L. Baugher, of Harrisonburg; E. O. Menger, of Dayton, and M. B. O'Con-ner, Harrisonburg, finished in the order raymed.

The one mile, open, amateur, the so-called blue-ribbon race of the meet, was then called. This race at first was to be run in three heats, the winner of two to take the prize, a beautiful diamond stud, but it was afterwards changed to a mile open race. Excitement ran high when the men lined up in their respective positions, and great interest was mani-fested at the outcome. There were nine fested at the outcome. There were nine starters in the final, including E. S. Wilson, the District of Columbia champion; Fred Schade, Virginia's pride and speedlest, who received a great ovation as he took his stand; J. H. Minnick, of Wilmington, Del., and William Whitmore, of Dayton, Gilbert R. Roderick, of Charleston, W. Va., was up to pace the event. The Georgetown champion showed his wonderful spurting passing showed his wonderful spurting, passing his opponent like the wind, and won easily. The winner was loudly cheered.

The next race, a mile, Shenandoah championship, was won in good style by T. C. Bowling, of Staunton, with Baugher second.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP. Next on the programme came the three-mile League of American Wheelmen championship of the State—the last of the series of State championships. It was a well-known fact that Fred. Schade, who had won all the other championships, had come here especially for this race, and was very anxious to win it. Six men started in the final, and Curiy-Halred Fred. who seemed win it. Six men started in the final, and Curly-Halred Fred., who seemed afraid of the crowd, remained in last place, watching his men like a hawk. At the one-quarter pole he moved up, took the lead, and rode just fast enough to win, with Bowling second, Rhinehardt third. Time, 8:33.

After this race the two-mile lap-race was called, which brought forth all the enthusiasm the crowd had. Wilson won the 'irst, third, and fourth laps, thereby gaining II points to Schade's 9, with Minnick, of Delaware, 5 points, third. The finishes at each lap were so close that it kept many guessing who really that it kept many guessing who really had won out. This was a good race, and Wilson deserves much praise in winning out. The time was 5:39.

The Rockingham county championship, for a gold medal as a prize, followed this event, and was won handliy by J.

THE EVENT OF THE DAY.

Now came the race of the day, a five-mile handleap, with Schade and Wisson on scratch, and the field strung out to the heavy handleap of 456 yards. Twenty-seven men started in this race, and the back-mark men were thought to be hopelessly out of it. Such in-andout riding gameness, determination, and grit as little Schade and Wilson showed as they slowly moved down the heavy handicaps of the fast-flying limit-men has never before been seen in the State. has never before been seen in the State.

The crowd, trainers, and all went wild with excitement, and urged the boys on with every encouragement possible. Lap after lap was reeled off in remarkable fast time, these two changing pace like machinery at every quarter. At three miles it was seen that if they could keep this sail up the State record would surely be broken.

Schade and Witson, by supernuman afforts muchas the delight of the crowds, then affects the fastest amateur, handless record time made this year, and said to be the world's amateur re cord for the distance. THE PRIZES.

The prizes were presented at the new court-house by Mr. Roger B. Atkinson, who made a graceful speech with the presentation of each prize. This was followed by a ball in honor of the wheel-

HARTFORD AND WORCESTER OR-GANIZATIONS SEE THE CITY.

ENTERTAINED BY LEE CAMP

Interesting Dress Parade in the Afternoon-Express Delight With the Liberality of the Hospitality Which Has Been Shown to Them

The visiting military companies from Hartford and Worcester, with their guests, were fairly enthusiastic over their Young Men's Business Association, and other public-spirited citizens could make it, and how successful those efforts were can best be judged from the frequent expressions of pleasure and gratitude which were heard on all sides last night. There were no formal arrang 'round the city in small parties, and many of them were entertained pri-Armory, and the route was the same as published in the Dispatch yesterday, In the Capitol Square the visitors gave large crowd of interested spectators. They used the new tactics, and made a very erditable showing. RECEPTION BY LEE CAMP.

During the evening there was a band concert at Murphy's Hotel, given by the Colts Band, of Hartford. Many of those who belonged to the Masonic order visited Lodge No. 19, during the evening, and others attended a very successful reception held by Lee Camp at their Broad-street hall.

Colonel Alex. Archer made the address of welcome. He assured the visitors that, though the organization he represented was termed a rebel camp, they could find warm hearts and outstretched hands and warm hearts and outstretched hands in it. He welcomed the visitors in hearty terms, and roused them to enthusiasm with the statement that the North and South were moving towards a common end, and if any one should lay a hand upon the common flag, the man who were the gray would be one of the first to fight for it.

APPRECIATION OF VISITORS. Armorer Hubbard, of the Worcester

Armorer Hubbard, of the Workester Armory, who served during the war with the Third Maine Regiment, said he wanted to thank the people of Richmond on his own behalf and on behalf of the Grand Army of Massachusetts and Hariford for the cordial and hospitable reception extended to their representatives upon the present occasion. He expressed the hope that ere long there would be a happy reunion of Blue and Gray.

Mr. F. H. Rice, another member of the that ere long there would be a happy reunion of Biue and Gray.

Mr. F. H. Rice, another member of the G. A. R., expressed regret that their stay was not a longer one, for there were so many places of interest about the city that it had been impossible to visit them all. He expressed high appreciation of "the royal entertainment" that had been accorded them.

Colonel Clapp said that he had never received a heartler welcome than that accorded him by Richmond people. He confessed that he came here with some misgivings, but he had been carried away by the generous welcome, and he added that should any veteran reach Massachusetts, the same warm welcome would be extended to him. Continuing, he stoke of the many advantages of Virginia. He said he was convinced that the people did not realize her great uniocral resources. He urged the development of the water-power, and said northern capital and the said the said he development of the water-power, and said northern capital to a longer than the said by the said he development of the water-power, and said northern capital to a longer than the said the said the development of the water-power, and said northern capital than the said the said the said the development of the water-power, and said northern capital than the said the sa the water-power, and said northern capi-tal, no longer timid, would readily be found, and that Virginia would become
